MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. Lloyd
SUBJECT : Wartime Preparation

1. I'm trying to get the feel of these things so may be off base, but off hand I see no reason why a memo of this sort should be sent to DD/S.

2. Seems that all OL needs to do is ask [redacted] or [redacted] to call a meeting to clarify a few questions that have been raised.

3. If they hit a snag and can't resolve the problem then, of course, it would be proper to present the matter to DD/S. As it now stands OL has written a two-page memo that winds up recommending a meeting be held. The memo was not coordinated with SSA-DD/S.

4. Suggest we prepare note on cover sheet and buck back to OL or perhaps you would prefer we send it to SSA-DD/S.
